I sure enjoyed my visit with you, Jessica and Bo. I have an appointment with David Coburn on Monday and I expect he will want to talk to you as soon as possible. I'll give him all of your contact information and suggest that he arrange for a time when the two of you are free to talk.

With very best wishes
David

Thanks again for the visit today. I hope the rest of your meetings go well, and that I didn't make you late for any today.

I look forward to touching base soon with the gentleman that you mentioned today.

Thanks,
John

Consider it done!

Why don't you just tell me when you are getting close to the building, and I can meet you in the lobby.

Thanks,
John

Looking forward to it. I think we will run by Rocklands on the way to the house to pick up food. Jess will call it in ahead of time. Do you mind looking at their menu and picking out something? I always just get the pulled pork sandwich with collard greens.

Hi John

We have something substantive to discuss tomorrow as a result of our new president's "information" session with some student protestors. I think you will find it interesting.

Best
David
